ORDER

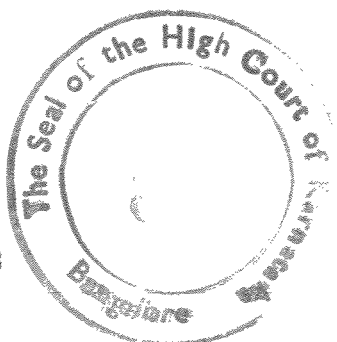

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that despite findings written in favour of his client in para 19 of its order, the Tribunal was not justified in rejecting the application filed for the redressal of the grievance projected by the petitioner.

Be it as it may, we are not inclined to interfere with the order of the Administrative Tribunal on this ground. The petitioner is, however, at liberty to approach the Tribunal by way of review petition for seeking appropriate orders on the pleas projected before us.

Dismissed with liberty to file review petition before the Tribunal. As and when such review application is filed along with the application for condonation of delay, the same shall be considered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of law and the facts of the case.
